

Annual Redbud District Meeting...Tuesday, October 24, 2006

"Cruisin' Through History"

At Stone Mountain Park Aboard The Henry W. Grady Riverboat

Coffee and Registration: 9:00 – 10:00 a.m.

Meeting: 10:00 a.m.

Directions to Stone Mountain Park: (Your registration fee includes FREE entrance into the Park for the day)

Take Stone Mountain Freeway (Highway 78) to exit 8, the Stone Mountain Park Main Entrance (East Gate). Follow the exit ramp to the East Gate entrance of Stone Mountain Park. After passing through the gate, take the first left onto Stonewall Jackson Drive and go to the Commons parking area on the right just past the golf course and The Commons Restaurant. Follow the walkway by the lake or wait for the shuttle to the riverboat, which is docked behind the Commons restaurant. Anyone with walking difficulties may be dropped off at the service entrance to the restaurant and dock, which is on the right before the Commons parking lot. Look for the small sign indicating "service entrance" and turn right. You may drive down the ramp to the dock to drop off passengers, but must then park in the Commons parking area just past the restaurant.

I would like to reserve exhibit space for my hanging display ___ I will send handout material ___
Chairmanship/Name of Display _____

To Reserve Exhibit Space: Contact Exhibit Chairman Gail Berthe (770-228-8849; glberthe@aol.com) or note your request on the registration form below. Display should be on a 20"x 30" foam board and will be hung from the boat railings. Exhibit Chairman will provide materials to hang displays. Because of limited display space, handout materials you plan to use must be sent to Gail (131 Lufbery Circle, Williamson 30292) by October 18th and will be included in a packet for each meeting attendee.
